

The Bistro Website

Using the website (Bistro – download compressed file and un-compress/unzip the folder) provided:

1. Link the css file to the html file
  2. Use HTML5 tags for divs where possible
  3. In the .css file, style the following html elements:
    - a. `<body>`
    - b. ``
    - c. `<h1>` and `<h2>`
  4. Create a second nav inside the footer. Use ids to differentiate navs.
    - a. Put id declaration with relevant attributes in css file
    - b. Put relevant html code in html file
  5. Create a class which will be used to hold the main content of the web page
    - a. Put class declaration with relevant attributes in css file
    - b. Put relevant html code in html file
  6. Change the colour of the hyperlink
    - a. The hyperlink should be navy whether it has been visited nor not
    - b. Remove the underline from the hyperlink
-
7. Make the header of the website fixed i.e. position:sticky

